Shalimar, FL - The Okaloosa County Tax Collector's Office is pleased to announce their participation and collaboration with the United States Postal Service in an effort to keep customers informed about their incoming mail pieces. More specifically, their vehicle registration renewals, property tax notices and business tax receipt renewals.

"Through the United States Postal Service's FREE Informed Delivery® program our customers can stay informed of the delivery of their individual mail pieces. Using Informed Delivery® you can digitally preview your mail and manage your package deliveries," states Tax Collector Ben Anderson.

Registering for Informed Delivery® provides customers with the ability to preview the exterior of incoming and delivered letter-sized mail pieces, as well as track packages in one convenient location. Additionally, users can choose to receive notification of arrivals via email, making it easier than ever to see if mail has been delivered.

Anderson continues, "Our partnership with the United States Postal Service makes it easier than ever to conduct Business Online, Not in Line. Receiving your notices acts as a reminder to complete your transactions through our Safe, Secure and Convenient website, OkaloosaTax.com."

The Tax Collector's Office works hard to ensure the citizens of Okaloosa County are up to date with the most current and relative information to make doing business as simple as possible. For more information on the Informed Delivery® service offered by the United States Postal Service, please visit InformedDelivery.usps.com.
